ASTON MARTINS jostle for position out of the Mallory hairpin.

Miller plays joker

The AMOC put on a packed afternoon of racing at its first ever Mallory Park meeting.

Race of the day, however, came as Graham Miller and Dave Jarman continually traded the lead before Miller won the WRDA Championship race.

The Inter-Marque race saw Elbow and dipping his Marcos into the gravel trap. Chris Reece was third in another Elan ahead of Kerry Horan's TVR Griffith and the Lotus Elites of Roger Fountain and Christopher Ross.

Martin McGlone won the Aston Martin and Pre War Sports Car race despite a quick off at Shaws which Heynes was never again challenged for the lead of the Post-War Aston race. Stephen Wakefield never quite challenged the leader in his DB4, while third finisher Ronnie Farmer had driven his DB5 up there from the back of the grid. Geoffrey Harris took fourth in the Zagato, then came Foster and another back row starting DB4, with John Goldsmith at the wheel.

After early exchanges of position, Chris Montague managed to fend off Peter May's attempts to oust him from the lead of the Austin Healey race. Simon Page soon took third from Hugh Leventon, who would lose another place to Robert Nettleton as Sprites dominated out front.

His spin in an earlier race seemed to have fired up Pete Foster as his DB4 snarled away from the Thoroughbred Sports Car field. More DB4s - in the hands of Stephen Wakefield, David Heynes and John Goldsmith - ran closely in second to fourth places. Ronnie Farmer again started from the back of the grid, this time finishing sixth in his DB5, with Alan Charlton's Triumph TR6 in his sights.

It was Toyota Starlet versus Datsun 240Z and place change after place change before Graham Miller's Starlet took the chequered flag 0.06s in front of Dave Jarman. The WRDA Sports/Saloon Championship runners headed home a combined race with the Jaguar XK Saloons. The latter section was dominated by George Page's 340. Much closer were the second and third finishing Mk2s of
