

The Principles of the WRDA MSA are to provide close and exciting racing with modern competitive cars in sufficient numbers to promote spectator interest. It will foster its own championships for the benefit of its members and the general public. It will provide races of differing lengths and status. In the interest of close and exciting racing it may be necessary to handicap certain championships. However the principle will always allow the better driver to win.